No. 50

A Japanese evening, including an informal Koto concert in the garden, the only night-time showing of the Japanese Exhibition House and a brief illustrated talk on "Aspects of Japanese Architecture" will be presented at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, Thursday, May 26 at 8:30 p.m. Shin-ichi Yuize will sing and play ^{18th century + contemporary music on} the Koto, a stringed instrument, and Arthur Drexler, Curator of Architecture, will deliver the illustrated talk. The Japanese Exhibition House, built in Japan and re-assembled in the Museum's outdoor exhibition area last year, and now re-opened for its final summer, will be specially lighted for this single night-time showing. Tickets are $1.50 for Museum members, $2.00 for non-members. Refreshments will be on sale in the garden. The evening is sponsored by the Museum's Junior Council.
