FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two lucky ticket holders at the gala benefit preview of RECENT DRAWINGS USA to be held on Tuesday evening, April 24 at the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, will have their choice of anything in the exhibition up to the value of $150 that is not sold by 11 p.m. The preview, called "Collectors' First Choice" as those attending will have the first opportunity to purchase works in the show, is being held for the benefit of the Junior Council under whose auspices the exhibition is being presented.

One hundred and fifty drawings are in the exhibition, selected by William S. Lieberman, Curator of Prints at the Museum, from 5,000 submitted by artists in all parts of the country. All the drawings are for sale, two-thirds at less than $100.

The preview will be held from 9 p.m. until midnight, and tickets at $7.50 each are still available at the office of the Museum's Junior Council, 21 West 53 Street. The Benefit Committee is under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Sawyer G. Dewey and Mrs. John Pierrepont. Ticket holders must be present at the drawing at 11 p.m. to be eligible for one of the prizes.
