MUSEUM OF MODERN ART DIRECTOR TO ATTEND EXHIBITION OPENING IN MADRID

René d'Harnoncourt, Director of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, flies to Madrid today [July 11] to attend the opening, July 16, of THE NEW AMERICAN PAINTING exhibition at the Museo de Arte Contemporáneo. Organized by the Museum's International Program under the auspices of the International Council at the Museum of Modern Art, the exhibition of work by seventeen artists provides the first comprehensive showing sent abroad of advanced trends in contemporary American painting.

The painters represented are: William Baziotes, James Brooks, Sam Francis, Arshile Gorky, Adolph Gottlieb, Philip Guston, Grace Hartigan, Franz Kline, Willem de Kooning, Robert Motherwell, Barnett Newman, Jackson Pollock, Mark Rothko, Theodoros Stamos, Clyfford Still, Bradley Walker Tomlin and Jack Tworkov. Miss Dorothy C. Miller, Curator of Collections at the Museum of Modern Art, made the selection.

THE NEW AMERICAN PAINTING will remain on view in Madrid through August 15. Already shown in Basel and Milan, the exhibition will later travel to other European cities including Berlin, Brussels, Paris and London.

Porter A. McGray, Director of the International Program, will also attend the opening.

For further information contact Elizabeth Shaw, Publicity Director, Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York. Circle 5-8900.
