MARCH OPENINGS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

- Mar. 9 - CLAUDE MONET: SEASONS AND MOMENTS. An exhibition of Monet's landscapes. Although a large group of Monet's most important early landscapes are included, the exhibition emphasizes those representing a single motif in several versions, at different hours of the day or seasons of the year. It culminates in a selection from the famous "series" - Haystacks, Poplars, Cathedrals, Views of the Thames, Venice, Water Lilies, etc. Between 1891 and 1912 each of these series was exhibited as a related group, although they have not been seen in this way since. Under the direction of William Seitz, a Professor of art at Princeton University. (Third Floor)
- Mar. 23 - A selection of paintings, sculpture and prints available for rent or
Apr. 17 sale from the Art Lending Service. (Auditorium Gallery)

FUTURE OPENINGS AND SPECIAL EVENTS

- April 7 MONET AND CONFORMITY TO NATURE. Lecture by William Seitz, Director
8:30 p.m. of the Monet exhibition, in the Auditorium gallery. Tickets are $1.50 for members and students; $2.00 for non-members.
