LEONARDO DA VINCI,

FILM AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

Leonardo da Vinci, a motion picture survey of the life, times and achievement of "the universal man," will be shown at the Museum of Modern Art, May 7 - 10, daily at 3 and 5:30. The 1952 film was directed by Luciano Emmer and Lauro Venturi, produced by Leonid Kipnis and Herman Starr, music by Roman Vlad. Land of the Long Day (1952), written and directed by Douglas Wilkinson, for the National Film Board of Canada, is also on the program. Out of Darkness, originally scheduled, will not be shown at the Museum at this time.

Wanda Hale in the Daily News called Leonardo da Vinci "an amazing revelation, or a gratifying reminder, of the great man's genius and versatility....beautiful and inspiring and wonderously third-dimensional."

The film will be shown at the Museum by courtesy of Miss Roslyn Appelbaum of Pictura Films, Inc.
