AUGUST OPENINGS

August 1 - FIFTEEN POLISH PAINTERS. An exhibition of 75 paintings by the leading contemporary Polish painters who have received international recognition in the important biennials of Venice, São Paulo and Paris. As an important cultural exchange project carried out on a non-official basis, the Museum under the auspices of its Department of Circulating Exhibitions, offers the first comprehensive exhibition of postwar Polish Art in this country. The exhibition will also be shown at museums in the United States and Canada. Among the artists represented are Brzozowski, Kantor, Kierzkowski, Kobzdej, Lebenstein and Potworowski. Directed by Peter Selz, Curator of the Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions. An illustrated catalog, with text by Mr. Selz, will be published in conjunction with the exhibition. (First floor)

August 15 - ROADS. Historically, roads have been a prime factor in the development of civilizations. Materials and technical ability have determined engineering possibilities in each era, but the well-designed road has always reflected an essential beauty of form linked with function. Includes photographic enlargements of historic roads, supplemented with several spectacular maps, as well as modern roads. The latter vary from the stark directness of a desert highway to the serpentine fantasy of a road through the Alps. Directed by Bernard Rudofsky.

The Helicoid in Caracas, Venezuela designed by Guitierrez, Neuberger and Bornhost. A combination road-shopping center now under construction shown in enlarged photographs and drawings. Consists of a spiral ramp which winds up a steep rocky hill and provides automobile access to a continuous chain of shops. It has been named "Helicoid" to indicate that it is a spiral surface in space. (Auditorium gallery)

FUTURE EXHIBITIONS

September 26 - DIOGENES WITH A CAMERA V. The work of three photographers: The Englishman, Bill Brandt; the Frenchman, Lucien Clerque; the American, Yasuhiro Ishimoto. (Auditorium gallery)
