This fall the Museum will continue to remain open until 10 p.m. on Thursdays. The current JAZZ IN THE GARDEN series (schedule on p.4) will be followed by a program of films, concerts, lectures and symposia in the Auditorium on Thursday evenings. Dinner and light refreshments are available.

SCHEDULE OF EXHIBITIONS AND EVENTS

Note: Full releases on each exhibition are available five days before the opening. Photographs are available on request from Elizabeth Shaw, Publicity Director.

SEPTEMBER OPENINGS

Sept. 8 - Sept. 25
FOR THE 20TH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF THE HISTORY OF ART: TWO SMALL EXHIBITIONS OF WORKS FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION: MODERN ALLEGORIES: Works by Gauguin, Munch, Ensor, Beckmann, Tchelitchew, Blume, Chagall, Klee, Delvaux, Siqueiros, Picasso, de Chirico, and others, which express meanings beyond the obvious by the use of iconography, occasionally traditional but more often highly original.

RECENT AMERICAN ABSTRACT PAINTINGS: A selection of a few canvases by United States artists who have won international fame and influence since World War II. (Second Floor)

Sept. 26 - Nov. 12
DIOGENES WITH A CAMERA: An exhibition of about 50 photographs each by three photographers: Bill Brandt (British), represented by increasingly stylized and abstract studies from his "Perspectives of Nudes;" Lucien Clergue (French), nudes in the sea, ants, swamp studies, which show a preoccupation with death and decay; Yasuhiro Ishimoto (American), children and adults affected by the city and, in different vein, the elegant Katsura palace near Kyoto, Japan. The exhibition is the fifth of a series initiated in 1952 "to indicate photography's contribution to the search for truth." Directed by Edward Steichen, Director of the Museum's Department of Photography; assisted by Grace M. Mayer, Associate Curator, and Kathleen Haven; installation by Miss Haven. (Auditorium gallery)

FUTURE OPENINGS

Oct. 4 - Dec. 3
THE ART OF ASSEMBLAGE: An international exhibition of collages and many other varieties of art assembled from paper, cloth, wood, metal, manufactured objects and other unorthodox materials. It will include works by Picasso, Braque, Duchamp, Severini, Schwitter, Ernst, Miro, Cornell and other famous masters of cubism, futurism, dada and surrealism; by other well-known figures including de Kooning, Motherwell, Rauschenberg, Tinguely and Steinkevicz; and also works by younger artists of the United States, England, France, Italy, Germany and Poland. In order to demonstrate the diversity of work which has been done in this medium, and to face the controversial issues raised by recent assembled art, as many tendencies as possible will be included. The exhibition will be in the Dallas Museum of Contemporary Arts, January 9 - February 11 and in the San Francisco Museum, March 5 - April 15. Directed by William Seitz, Associate Curator of the Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions. (3rd floor)

Oct. 18 - Dec. 3
THE LAST WORKS OF HENRI MATISSE: LARGE CUT GOUACHES. An exhibition of the works to which Matisse devoted the last years of his richly creative life. Approximately 30 large scale compositions--nudes, dancers, leaves, flowers--cut, with no preliminary drawings, from paper which he first painted with brilliant colors, and then pasted on large sheets of paper or canvas. Matisse invented this technique and continued working in it until his death. These final compositions epitomize three aspects of his art: brilliant color, exact and unique draftsmanship, and illusory three-dimensional form inspired by sculpture. Directed by Monroe Wheeler, Director of Exhibitions and Publications, who is preparing an extensive book to be published in connection with the show. (First floor)

November 21 - January 7
STAINED GLASS WINDOWS BY CHAGALL. Twelve stained glass windows designed by Chagall for a synagogue at the new Hadassah-Hebrew University Medical Center near Jerusalem. Shown under the sponsorship of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, which commissioned the works of art. The windows symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. Each is almost 11 feet high and more than 8 feet wide. They are being shown this summer in a specially constructed pavilion in the Tuilleries. Directed by Peter Selz, Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions. (Stairwell)

OROZCO DRAWINGS: Studies for the Murals at Dartmouth College. In 1952 the great Mexican artist José Clemente Orozco was commissioned to decorate the library at Dartmouth College with a series of monumental frescoes. Approximately 50 studies for these murals will be shown for the first time through the courtesy of the artist's son, Clemente Orozco. Small compositional sketches of complete panels, studies of details and cartoons of the actual murals, they reveal Orozco's powerful imagery and his gifts as a draftsman. Directed by Elaine Johnson, Assistant Curator of Drawings and Prints. (Auditorium gallery)

ROADS: The first exhibition devoted to the art of roadbuilding. Elevated roads, multi-lane highways, interchanges, airport runways and roads incorporating buildings and towns are shown in approximately 70 enlarged photographs, some of them mural size. After the New York showing, the exhibition will be sent to museums throughout the country. Directed by the architect-engineer Bernard Rudofsky in collaboration with Arthur Drexler, Director of the Department of Architecture and Design. Opened August 15. (Auditorium gallery)

Through October 1
FIFTEEN POLISH PAINTERS: An exhibition of 75 paintings by the leading contemporary Polish painters who have received international recognition in the important biennials of Venice, Sao Paulo and Paris. As an important cultural exchange project carried out on a non-official basis, the Museum under the auspices of its Department of Circulation Exhibitions, offers the first comprehensive exhibition of postwar Polish Art in this country. The exhibition will also be shown at museums in the United States and Canada. Among the artists represented are Brzozowski, Kantor, Kiezeński, Kobdeł, Lebenstein and Potworowski. Directed by Peter Selz, Curator of the Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions and author of an illustrated catalog, published in conjunction with the exhibition. Opened August 1. (First floor)
