NOVEMBER OPENINGS

Nov. 19 - CHAGALL: THE JERUSALEM WINDOWS. Twelve stained glass windows designed and executed by Marc Chagall for a synagogue at the new Hadassah-Hebrew Medical Center near Jerusalem. The brilliantly colored windows represent the twelve tribes of Israel. Each is almost 11 feet high and more than 8 feet wide. They were executed with the assistance of Charles Marq of Reims who will assemble them here. Sketches for the windows will also be shown as well as photographs of the synagogue where they will be permanently installed after the exhibition. Sponsored by Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, which commissioned the work of art. Directed by Peter Selz, Curator of the Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions, installed by René d'Harnoncourt, Director of the Museum. (Third floor)

Nov. 22 - OROZCO DRAWINGS: Studies for the Murals at Dartmouth College. In 1932 the great Mexican artist José Clemente Orozco was commissioned to decorate the library at Dartmouth College with a series of monumental frescoes. Approximately 75 studies for these murals will be shown for the first time through the courtesy of the artist's son, Clemente Orozco. Small compositional sketches of complete panels, studies of details and cartoons of the actual murals, they reveal Orozco's powerful imagery and his gifts as a draftsman. Directed by Elaine Johnson, Assistant Curator of Drawings and Prints. (Auditorium gallery)

CURRENT EXHIBITIONS

Through Nov. 12
THE ART OF ASSEMBLAGE. The first exhibition to demonstrate fully the importance of collage, and its various expanded forms, for contemporary art. Will be shown at the Dallas Museum of Contemporary Arts (Jan. 9 - Feb. 11) and at the San Francisco Museum (March 5 - April 15). Directed by William C. Seitz, Associate Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions. Opened Oct. 4 (Third floor)

Through Dec. 3
THE LAST WORKS OF HENRI MATISSE: LARGE CUT GOUACHES. An exhibition of the works to which Matisse devoted the last years of his richly creative life. Approximately 50 large scale compositions—nudes, dancers, leaves, flowers—cut, with no preliminary drawings, from paper which he first painted with brilliant colors, and then pasted on large sheets of paper or canvas. Matisse invented this technique and continued working in it until his death. These final compositions epitomize three aspects of his art: brilliant color, exact and unique draftsmanship, and illusory three-dimensional form inspired by sculpture. Directed by Monroe Wheeler, Director of Exhibitions and Publications, author of a book published in connection with the show. Opened Oct. 18.

Through Nov. 12
DIOGENES WITH A CAMERA V. An exhibition of about 50 photographs each by three photographers: Bill Brandt (British), represented by stylized and abstract studies; Lucien Clergue (French), nudes in the sea, animals, swamp studies; Yasuhiro Ishimoto (American), children and adults affected by the city and the elegant Katsura palace near Kyoto, Japan. Directed by Edward Steichen, Director of the Museum's Department of Photography; assisted by Grace M. Mayer, Associate Curator, and Kathleen Haven; installation by Miss Haven. Opened Sept. 26. (First floor)

Through the Fall

Works by Gauguin, Munch, Ensor, Beckmann, Tchelitchew, Blume, Chagall, Klee, Delvaux, Siqueiros, Picasso, de Chirico, and others, which express meanings beyond the obvious by the use of iconography, occasionally traditional but more often highly original.
