THE IDEAL CITY,

FORUM AT MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

The Ideal City, the last of five public forums presented by the Architectural League of New York and the Museum of Modern Art, will be held Thursday, April 19, at 8:30 p.m., in the Museum auditorium. Speakers are Louis I. Kahn, architect, and Peter Blake, Managing Editor of "Architectural Forum." This concluding program of the series, "The Building Boom: Architecture in Decline," will include a summary of earlier sessions.

A limited number of tickets for the forum, $2.25 for Museum and League members, $3.00 for non-members, will be available in the Museum lobby on the evening of the program. Tickets include admission to the Museum and galleries, open Thursday evenings until 10 p.m. Dinner and refreshments are available.

The series was organized by the Museum and the League to explore the effects on architecture of economics, politics and law.

Further information available from Herbert Bronstein, Associate Publicity Director, Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York 19, N. Y. Circle 5-8900.
