The Museum of Modern Art is offering 28 Christmas cards this year at prices ranging from five cents to fifty cents each.

Among the religious subjects are David, an etching by Marc Chagall, Flight into Egypt, by Redon, Three Kings, from a woodcut by Rohlfis and Angel with a Horn, a reproduction of a charcoal drawing by Ernst Barlach.

Colorful reproductions of works from the Museum Collection include Prendergast's April Snow, Salem, Soutine's Chartre Cathedral and Paul Klee's witty Laughing Gothic. Bonnard, Matisse, Moore, Picasso are among other famous artists represented. The cards are available at the Main Sales Desk at the Museum or by mail order.

Black and white gift enclosure cards are reproductions of aquatints by Picasso from Buffon's Histoire Naturelle. They are 25 cents per package of six cards, one of each title.

Members of the Museum are entitled to a 25 per cent discount on orders of $3.00 or more before the discount.

An illustrated brochure with an order blank is sent free on request. There is a minimum order of 25 cards per title.
