CURRENT EXHIBITIONS (con't)

Through
Sept. 18

PICASSO IN THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART: 80TH BIRTHDAY EXHIBITION.
In honor of Picasso's 80th birthday the Museum's outstanding collection of his works will be shown together for the first time. The exhibition constitutes a survey of six decades of achievement in many media; it includes some 35 paintings and collages, 7 sculptures and a comprehensive group of some 20 drawings, 75 prints and 10 illustrated books. In addition, several major paintings promised or already partly given to the Museum were lent to the show by private collectors. (Third floor). Opened May 15.

A very important supplement to the exhibition is Picasso's great Guernica mural, together with 60 related studies, now on loan to the Museum from the artist. (Second floor)

Throughout
the year

A BID FOR SPACE. A special installation of the Museum Collections on the second floor includes selections from architecture and design collection, photography collection, print and drawing collections in addition to painting. Sculpture from the Collection on view in third floor gallery and in the Sculpture Garden.

Through
the spring

FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION: MODERN ALLEGORIES. Works by Gauguin, Munch, Ensor, Beckmann, Tchelitchev, Blume, Chagall, Klee, Delvaux, Siqueiros, Picasso, de Chirico, and others, which express meanings beyond the obvious by the use of iconography, occasionally traditional but more often highly original. (Second floor).

Throughout
the year

A lobby exhibition marking the second year of the Museum of Modern Art's drive for $25,000,000 for a new building and for program and endowment.
