SCHEDULE OF EXHIBITIONS AND EVENTS

Note: Full releases on each exhibition are available five days before the opening. Photographs are available on request from Elizabeth Shaw, Publicity Director.

OCTOBER OPENINGS

October 2 - THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART BUILDS. A display of architectural models and photographs of the proposed additions to and renovations of the Museum. Presents overall building plans indicating sections to be completed by Spring, 1963. A brochure covering this material is available on request. (First floor)

October 18 - THE BITTER YEARS: 1935-1941 RURAL AMERICA SEEN BY THE PHOTOGRAPHERS OF THE FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION. A selection from the F.S.A. project, one of the most important documentation ever undertaken by any government. The monumental assignment covered many phases of rural and urban life during the Great Depression. Includes photographs by Walker Evans, Dorothea Lange, Arthur Rothstein, Ben Shahn and others who worked under the guidance of Roy E. Stryker. Exhibition directed by Edward Steichen. Installed by Kathleen Haven. (Third floor)

October 18 - EUROPEAN ACQUISITIONS: Five Painters as Printmakers and Recent Prints from Germany, Poland and Russia. Includes comprehensive surveys of the relatively unfamiliar graphic work of the post-impressionists Walter Sickert (English); Paul Signac and Felix Vallotton (French); the pioneer of German expressionism, Christian Rohlfis; and the contemporary French painter, Andre Masson. The exhibition will also include new prints by twenty young German artists, shown for the first time in the United States, and brief surveys of current printmaking in Poland and Russia. (Third floor)

FUTURE OPENINGS

CURRENT EXHIBITIONS

Through October 28

ERNST HAAS - COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY. A ten-year retrospective of his photography - Images of New York, the Bull-fight essay, studies of motion (Water skiing, the rodeo, car racing and football) and his current series on the American landscape and abstractions in nature. Opened August 21. (Auditorium gallery)

Through November 4

MARK TOB Ey. A one-man show of about 130 prime paintings, mostly from the past two decades. Tobey (b.1890) first won general recognition after World War II, and was the first American painter since Whistler to be awarded an International Grand Prix at the Venice Biennale (1956) and the first living American to be given an exhibition at the Louvre in Paris (1961). The exhibition is accompanied by an extensive catalogue on the artist's work by William Seitz, Associate Curator, Painting and Sculpture Exhibitions who is also directing the show. To travel later to the Cleveland Museum of Art and to the Art Institute of Chicago. (First floor) Opened September 12.

Throughout the year

A BID FOR SPACE. A special installation of the Museum Collections on the second floor includes selections from architecture and design collection, photography collection, print and drawing collections in addition to painting, Sculpture from the Collection on view in third floor gallery and in the Sculpture Garden.

Through the fall

FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION: MODERN ALLEGORIES. Works by Gauguin, Munch, Ensor, Beckmann, Tchelitchew, Blume, Chagall, Klee, Delvaux, Siqueiros, Picasso, de Chirico, and others, which express meanings beyond the obvious by the use of iconography, occasionally traditional but more often highly original. (Second floor)

FILM SHOWINGS
