No. 129
FOR RELEASE:
Thursday, Nov. 15, 1962

Free gallery talks by A. L. Chanin, Museum of Modern Art staff lecturer, are now being given on Thursdays at 6 p.m. The hour-long evening lectures replace those formerly given on Sunday afternoons because the galleries have become too crowded at that time. Friday and Saturday afternoon talks continue as usual at 3:30 p.m.

Tonight (November 15) Mr. Chanin will discuss Picasso's Guernica which is on extended loan to the Museum from the artist. Using works from the Museum collection as examples, he will lecture on "Aspects of Expressionism" Friday, November 16 and "Aspects of Modern Sculpture" Saturday (November 17.)

The Museum galleries are open until 9 on Thursdays except Thanksgiving Day, November 22, when the entire Museum closes at 6 p.m. There will be no gallery talk that day.

Additional information available from Nancy Reed, Assistant Publicity Director, Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York 19, New York. Circle 5-8900.
