FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

An illustrated lecture on Medardo Rosso, an Italian artist whose sculpture is now on view at the Museum of Modern Art, will be given on Tuesday, November 5, at 8:30 p.m., by Margaret Scolari Barr in the Museum auditorium. Mrs. Barr is the author of the monograph on the artist published by the Museum on the occasion of the exhibition. The lecture is being presented under the auspices of the Museum and the Istituto Italiano di Cultura in New York.

Rosso (1858-1928), the principal exponent of impressionism in sculpture, is represented in this first museum show in America by 28 sculptures in wax and bronze. The exhibition will remain open through November 23.

Tickets, $1.50 for Museum members, $2.00 for non-members, and 75 cents for students, are on sale at the Museum, 11 West 53 Street, or can be ordered by mail.
