The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, announces its schedule of exhibitions for the 1936-1937 season. The schedule, with possible minor changes and additions, will be as follows:

Oct. 7 - Nov. 12 JOHN MARIN--Exhibition of paintings, watercolors, drawings and etchings by the American artist, John Marin. The works to be shown will be selected by Alfred Stieglitz.

Nov. 25 - Jan. 10 SURREALISM AND RELATED MOVEMENTS--This exhibition of the marvelous and fantastic will include not only the work of the Surrealist group in Paris and their followers throughout the world but also the work of artists of similar tendencies both of the present day and of the past. Mr. Alfred H. Barr, Jr., Director of the Museum, will spend several months abroad this Summer collecting material for the exhibition.

Jan. 20 - Feb. 28 AMERICAN ARCHITECTURE--This exhibition will present the architecture of America during the past five years. The material will be drawn from the entire country and will include sky-scrapers, commercial buildings, small houses, city and suburban dwellings, theatres, prefabricated houses, and interiors. The exhibition will show the work not only of well-known men but of young architects who have come to the fore during the past five years.
