FUTURE OPENINGS - TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS (Incomplete listing)

May 11-

American Collages. An exhibition of 54 works from about 1950 to the present by 14 artists. The importance of this medium has only developed during the past fifty years. Directed by Kynaston L. McShine, Department of Circulating Exhibitions, the exhibition is one of 8 specially prepared more... this year to travel throughout the country. Includes work by Cornell, Goodnough, Hedge, Ippolito, Jess, Katz, Krushenick, Leslie, Marca-Relli, Motherwell, Ryan, Smith, Vicente and von Wiegand. 1st floor, gall. 5 & 6.

May 18-

MODERN ARCHITECTURE, U.S.A. An exhibition relating and appraising recent work to the history of modern architecture in the United States. Selected by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture & Design. 1st fl.

June 9-

GIACOMETTI. Approximately 100 sculptures, drawings and paintings selected by Peter Selz, Curator, Painting & Sculpture Exhibitions. The retrospective will range from the famous European artist's surrealist beginnings to the evolution of his postwar characteristic style. To be shown in Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. 1st floor & Sculpture Garden.

Aug. 3-

VANITY PORTRAITS will present works of historical and contemporary photographic portraiture as it has expressed and helped formulate the changing concept of fashionable female beauty. Directed by John Szarkowski, Director, Department of Photography. 1st floor, gallery 5.

Aug. 10-

SCULPTURE IN GLASS. A small exhibition of objects designed by Arp, Ernst and Picasso to be made in glass in the ancient factories in Murano, Italy. Directed by Peter Selz, Curator, Painting & Sculpture Exhibitions. 1st floor, gallery 6.

Oct. 12*

STRUCTURES FOR SOUND - MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS BY FRANÇOIS & BERNARD BASCHET. A selection of musical instruments developed in the last ten years by the French sculptor, François Baschet, and his brother, Bernard Baschet, an engineer. The sounds of the Baschet instruments, though often similar to those produced by electronic means, are made by mechanical processes only: vibrations of metal elements energized by percussion; the sound is amplified by plastic balloons, metal sounding boards and tubes. Concerts have been given in Europe and the United States with music especially composed for this new range of sound. Directed by Ludwig Glaser, Associate Curator, Department of Architecture & Design. 1st floor, galleries 5 & 6.

Nov. 3-

THE FLORENE MAY SCHOENBORN & SAMUEL A. MARX COLLECTION. Thirty capital works of painting and sculpture from one of the greatest private collections in the world of works of the early part of the century. Directed by Monroe Wheeler, Director of Exhibitions & Publications. Will later travel. 1st floor.

spread and powerful new direction in contemporary art. It brings together paintings and constructions that initiate a new, highly perceptual phase in the grammar of art. Using only lines, bands and patterns, flat areas of color, white, gray or black, or cleanly cut wood, glass, metal and plastic, certain of these artists establish a totally new relationship between the observer and a work of art. Directed by William C. Seitz, Curator, Painting & Sculpture Exhibitions. Accompanied by a catalog.
1st floor. (Opened Feb. 25)

Through May 16

THE PHOTO ESSAY. Since the 1920's modern magazines have attempted to combine photographs, text and graphics to produce an integral statement;
The Photo Essay reviews the result. Directed by John Szarkowski, Director, Department of Photography. Special assistance by John G. Morris, Graphics
Editor for "The Washington Post." 1st floor. (Opened March 16)
