Dec. 5 STRUCTURES FOR SOUND - MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS BY FRANCOIS & BERNARD BASCHET. A selection of musical instruments developed in the last ten years by the French sculptor, François Baschet, and his brother, Bernard Baschet, an engineer. The sounds of the Baschet instruments, though often similar to those produced by electronic means, are made by mechanical processes only: vibrations of metal elements energized by percussion; the sound is amplified by plastic balloons, metal sounding boards and tubes. Concerts have been given in Europe and the United States with music especially composed for this new range of sound. Directed by Ludwig Glaeser, Associate Curator, Department of Architecture & Design. 1st floor, galleries 5 & 6.

Oct. 6- RECENT ACQUISITIONS: PHOTOGRAPHY. An exhibition of approximately 40 representative works chosen from almost 2,000 prints acquired by the Museum's Photography Department in the past five years. The show will contain the work of about 35 photographers. Although a few date from the 1890's, the majority were taken by young photographers within the last few years. Selected by Yeu-Bun Yee, Photography Department. Edward Steichen Photography Center. 3rd floor.

CURRENT TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS

- Through ELLIOTT ERWITT: IMPROBABLE PHOTOGRAPHS. About 45 photographs dealing
Oct. 3* with the absurdity of the commonplace. Selected by John Szarkowski, Director, Department of Photography. Edward Steichen Photography Center, 3rd floor. (Opened June 30)
- Through GIACOMETTI. Approximately 145 sculptures, drawings and paintings selected Oct. 10 by Peter Selz, Curator, Painting & Sculpture Exhibitions. The retrospective ranges from the famous European artist's surrealist beginnings to the evolution of his postwar characteristic style. To be shown in Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. 1st floor & Sculpture Garden.
(Opened June 9)
- Through GLAMOUR PORTRAITS. An exhibition of about 45 prints, dating from about Sept. 19 1850 to the present, by 12 photographers who have helped define our changing notions of what a beautiful woman should look like. The se-of beauty, not with specific beautiful women. Selected by John Szarkowski, Director, Department of Photography. 1st floor, gallery 6. (Opened Aug. 3)

- Through MASUO IKEDA PRINTS. Born in 1934, Ikeda is one of the most promising Sept. 19 artists in any medium in Japan today. A spirit of fantasy and sharp satire, as well as his choice of engraving and drypoint, clearly distinguish his prints from the tourist production of woodcuts which so often travel abroad as souvenirs from Japan. Directed by William S. Lieberman, Curator, Department of Drawings & Prints. 1st floor, gall. 5. (Opened Aug. 10)

(Opened April 20)
- Through Sept. 6 D. W. GRIFFITH: AMERICAN FILM MASTER. A pictorial outline of D. W.
