No. 29
Saturday, March 12, 1966
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Edward Logue, Development Administrator of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, will be the principal speaker at the third of the public forums, THE SHAPE OF CITIES IN OUR TIME, to be held Wednesday, March 16, at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium of The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53rd Street. The forums are being presented by the Museum and The Architectural League of New York.

A lawyer by profession, Edward Logue served as Development Administrator in New Haven, for Mayor Richard C. Lee, for six years before taking the same position under Mayor Collins in Boston. Mayor Lee will be principal speaker at the forum on Wednesday, March 30.

Mr. Logue's address, "It's What's Happening: Boston," will be followed by a discussion by members of a panel of interlocutors accompanying each presentation in the series. Panel members for the March 16 forum include: Arthur Drexler, Director of the Museum's Department of Architecture and Design, and the architects Peter Blake, William Conklin, Ulrich Franzen, Romaldo Giurgola, Philip Johnson, Charles Moore, Paul Rudolph, Robert Venturi, and Joseph Wasserman. Robert Stern, Program Director for the Architectural League, will moderate the discussion.
