JAZZ IN THE GARDEN

This summer's ten Thursday evening promenade concerts will feature a variety of contemporary pop music styles as well as the more traditional modes of jazz.

July 4: Max Kaminsky Dixieland Jazz Band
July 11: The Soft Machine
July 18: The Pazant Brothers
July 25: Reverend James Cleveland and his Gospel Singers

The other concerts will follow, weather permitting, on successive Thursdays through August 29. Admission to the Garden is 75 cents plus regular Museum admission; cushions may be rented for 25 cents. Programs are available at the Information Desk. The Garden Restaurant serves sandwiches, beer and soft drinks to those attending the jazz concert; the Penthouse Restaurant is open to the public for dinner.

THE MUSEUM COLLECTIONS. More than 1200 works on view in the painting and sculpture galleries on the 2nd and 3rd floors, Main Hall, outdoor Sculpture Garden, Philip L. Goodwin Galleries for Architecture & Design, Paul J. Sachs Galleries for Drawings & Prints, Edward Steichen Photography Center and Auditorium Gallery.

JULY OPENINGS

July 3-
Sept. 8

THE ART OF THE REAL: USA 1948-1968. Fifty-seven works dealing with certain significant developments in American painting and sculpture over the last 20 years. The character of the works is generally minimal in image and maximal in color, those which developed into the shaped canvas and those which have contributed to new sculpture. Ellsworth Kelly, Barnett Newman and Jasper Johns will be represented by work dating from the early 1950's. Other artists included are Alexander Liberman, Tony Smith, Paul Feeley, Kenneth Noland, Frank Stella, and a group of younger artists who bring the theme up to the present. Will be shown abroad in 1969. Guest Director, E. C. Goossen, well-known critic and Chairman of the Art Department at Hunter College. 1st floor, galleries 3, 4 and Sculpture Garden.

July 9-
Sept.

GARBO - FILM STILLs. In conjunction with the Lincoln Center Festival '68 of films starring Greta Garbo, presented by the Film Departments of Lincoln Center and The Museum of Modern Art, by special arrangement with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and The George Eastman House; approximately 80 stills will be shown from her famous movies, such as Camille, Ninotchka, and Anna Christie, as well as less familiar films. Selected and installed by Kathleen Haven, Graphics Coordinator. Auditorium Gallery.

FUTURE OPENINGS - TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS (Incomplete listing)

- Aug. 13- JOHN D. GRAHAM: Paintings and Drawings. This exhibition presents a
 Oct. 13 selection from the later works of the Russian-born artist, John D. Graham, who had a vital influence in shaping New York's art world of the thirties and forties but whose work is not well known to the general public. Working abstractly through the thirties, Graham adopted in the early forties a figurative style based on Renaissance painting. The works include unique and evocative portraits of women, immobile and calm, who betray a mysterious inner disturbance. Oil drawings on tracing paper create almost hieratic images reflecting Graham's increasing absorption in astrology, numerology and other occult and mystical systems. Selected by Eila Kokkinen, Assistant Curator for Drawings, Department of Drawings & Prints. 1st floor, galleries 5 & 6.
- Sept. 24- ARCHITECTURE OF MUSEUMS. During the last decade the world-wide prolifera-
 Nov. 11 tion of museums has resulted in much important architecture. It is not so surprising considering that almost every leading architect including Wright and Le Corbusier has been tempted into offering his own solutions to the problems of museum design. This exhibition will present several of the outstanding museums, such as Mies van der Rohe's New National Gallery for Berlin and Kevin Roche's Oakland Museum Center in California, in their architectural entirety, and focus on specific aspects of a great number of other museums. These aspects, drawn from museums all over the world, involve architectural details and installation elements for both newly constructed and recently renovated museum buildings. Models, drawings, photographic enlargements, and slide projections will illustrate the selected examples, with a brief historical introduction prefacing the entire show. Directed by Ludwig Glaeser, Associate Curator of Architecture, Department of Architecture & Design. 1st floor, gallery 2.
- Oct. 3- DUBUFFET - FROM THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART COLLECTIONS. Directed by
 Nov. 4 William S. Lieberman, Director, Department of Drawings & Prints. 1st floor, galleries 3 & 4.
- Oct. 24- BRASSAI (photography). Directed by John Szarkowski, Director, Depart-
 Jan. 5 ment of Photography. 1st floor, galleries 5 & 6.
