EXHIBITIONS
Through-out the year

FEBRUARY OPENINGS

Feb. 12-March

THE LOST FILM. An exhibition of still photographs which constitute the only surviving record of 28 films lost forever because of lack of adequate preservation safeguards. The films were directed by such notable men as Erich von Stroheim, Josef von Sternberg, Howard Hawks, Tod Browning and Frank Borzage; they starred Greta Garbo, Will Rogers, Lillian Gish, John Gilbert, Lon Chaney, Janet Gaynor and other well known actors and actresses. Among the titles are The Devil's Pass Key (1920), The Drag Net (1926), and The Case of Lena Smith (1929). Directed by Gary Carey, Assistant Curator, Department of Film, and installed by Kathleen Haven, Graphics Coordinator, Auditorium Gallery.

February Openings (cont’d)

Feb. 18- March 30

DRAWINGS: RECENT ACQUISITIONS. This exhibition will formally announce the acquisition of twenty drawings selected from holdings added to the drawing collection during the past year. Works exhibited will consist of five drawings by Henri Matisse and individual works by Balthus, Dubuffet, Kandinsky, Kupka and Picasso. Contemporary European and American artists will be represented by drawings by Hamilton, de Kooning, Leslie, Motherwell, Oldenburg and Tilson, among others. Directed by Eila Kokkinen, Assistant Curator for Drawings, Department of Drawings and Prints. Paul J. Sachs Galleries, 3rd floor.

Feb. 25- May 4

WALL HANGINGS. Approximately 40 works, some based on conventional weaves, often with tapestry interlocking. These and other ancient techniques, more and more often free of loom, have been reworked into modern idioms. Installed by Arthur Drexler, Director, Department of Architecture and Design; co-directed by Mildred Constantine, Consultant to the Department of Architecture and Design, and Jack Lenor Larsen, Designer. 1st floor.

Future Openings - Temporary Exhibitions (Incomplete listing - dates tentative)

March 5- April 27

WILLEM DE KOONING. This retrospective includes about 100 paintings and some 40 sketches, drawings, and pastels, and provides the first opportunity to see his whole development, from the mid-1930s to 1967, and to follow the logic which informs the artist's periodic swings between figure painting and abstraction which are uniquely fused in his style. Guest director, Thomas B. Hess. 1st floor.

March 18- April 13

MANZÔ - THE DOORS OF ST. PETER'S. A special exhibition of 12 bronze relief panels made by Giacomo Manzô as studies for his doors of St. Peter's, lent for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Francis Avnet. Installed by Renée Neu, Assistant Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. Main Lobby.

April 2- May 11

KANDINSKY WATERCOLORS. An exhibition composed chiefly of approximately 50 works never before shown in America. It reflects the full range of Kandinsky's innovative vision, from the animated early abstractions through the more formal and geometric works of his years at the Bauhaus and in Paris. 1st floor.

April 8- May 18

EUGÈNE ATGET (photographs).

April 29- June

TAMARIND PRINTS. Paul J. Sachs Gallery, 3rd floor.

May 20- Aug. 24

BILL BRANDT (photographs).

May 28- Sept. 1

THE NELSON ALDRICH ROCKEFELLER COLLECTION OF 20TH-CENTURY ART. The first large public showing of one of the most important private collections in this country. The Rockefeller collection reflects an astute perception of the art of our time and a wide range of interest from masters of modern art to very recent experimental work. Includes work by Arp, Boccioni, Braque, Calder, Giacometti, Gris, Johns, Kelly, Kiesler, Lachaise, Lichtenstein, Louis, Matisse, Miró, Moore, Picasso, Segal, David Smith, Tony Smith, Frank Stella, and many others. Directed by Dorothy C. Miller, Senior Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. It is accompanied by a catalog with foreword by Monroe Wheeler, an introduction by Governor Rockefeller, and text by William S. Lieberman. 1st floor.

June

PIONEERS OF NEW AMERICAN PAINTING. Directed by William S. Rubin, Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 3rd floor.
