FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday evening, March 24, at seven-thirty, a talk will be given by Mr. Bernard Sanders in the Young People's Gallery of the Museum of Modern Art, 14 West 49 Street. The talk is one of a monthly series held at the Museum for teachers of the twelve public and private schools participating in the educational program inaugurated by the Museum last fall under the direction of Mr. Victor E. D'Amico.

Mr. Sanders was formerly on the staff of the Psychiatric Ward of Bellevue Hospital. His subject Thursday night will be: Detection and Treatment of Handicaps of Normal Children through Art Work. A presentation, through case studies and art work, will be made of a two-year experiment in working with a wide variety of handicapped children.
