EXHIBITIONS

THE MUSEUM COLLECTION

Throughout the year

The 2nd and 3rd floors -- containing painting and sculpture galleries, the Philip L. Goodwin Galleries for Architecture and Design, The Paul Sachs Galleries for Drawings and Prints, The Edward Steichen Photography Center galleries -- are planned to give an overview of significant artistic direction from the 1880s through the present day, as well as to allow the exhibition of newly-acquired works in the context of the collection. Large paintings and sculpture are also on view in the Main Hall and outdoor Sculpture Garden.

<td>AMERICANS IN PARIS: THE COLLECTIONS OF GERTRUDE STEIN AND HER FAMILY. Approximately 100 works, including paintings, prints, drawings, and sculpture acquired by Gertrude, Leo, Michael, and Sarah Stein when these Americans were early patrons of Matisse, Picasso, and other artists in Paris who were to become internationally known as pioneers of the modern movement. The exhibition will include works by Picasso and Gris acquired from the Gertrude Stein Estate in 1968, most of which have never been shown in this country, as well as work from public and private collections here and abroad. One gallery will be devoted to photographs and other documents of the period. A series of related evening events will be presented. The exhibition will later be shown in Baltimore and San Francisco. Directed by Margaret Potter, Associate Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 1st Floor.</td>
<tr>
<td>Dec. 22 - Mar. 21, 1971</td>
<td>THE PRINTS OF JASPER JOHNS. Sachs Galleries. 3rd Floor. Prints and proofs of lithographs by Jasper Johns. This will be the first opportunity to observe some of the methods used by one of America's foremost artists to create what are agreed by many to be the finest prints of today. Work proofs, some incorporating drawn passages, demonstrate how various possibilities were used or discarded in achieving the final print. Few artists work as painstakingly with the printing processes. An aspect of Johns' creative approach is disclosed in this selection of his work, produced from 1960-70.</td>

TECHNICS AND CREATIVITY: SELECTIONS FROM GEMINI G.E.L.

GEMINI. Multiple art works from Gemini G.E.L. of Los Angeles; a selection from the adventurous and provocative productions of this organization. Working with some of America's major artists, the printers and craftsmen of Gemini have produced the largest lithographs (Rauschenberg), the largest multiple (Oldenburg), new uses for computers (Albers), special printing and molding devices (Johns) and, in general, have used the industry's resources to meet the creative demands of the artists. The exhibition will include Claes Oldenburg's 18-foot diameter Ice Bag (executed for Expo '70) and the movie based on it, and part of Robert Rauschenberg's Stoned Moon series, based on his experiences with the Apollo Moon Mission. A group of photo panels illustrating the steps in creating some of the works as well as the collaborative nature of Gemini's relationship with the artist will be available.

THE WORK OF FREI OTTO. A survey of Frei Otto's major theoretical studies and executed projects will be held on the terrace of the Museum's Sculpture Garden under a tent designed especially for the occasion. Directed by Ludwig Glaeser, Curator, Department of Architecture and Design. Garden.

CURRENT TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS

Through Aug. 9

GRAPHICS 1: NEW DIMENSIONS. The first of a series of exhibitions devoted to current ideas in graphic design. This exhibition features primarily posters which employ new methods and materials, such as inflated vinyl, vacuum formed plastic, and reflective surfaces. Among the artists represented are Emilio Ambasz, Lothar Fischer, Peter Gee, Carl Laanes, Giovanni Pintori, and Eduardo Terrazas. Directed by John Garrigan, Assistant Curator of Graphic Design. 2nd Floor. (opened June 25).

Through Aug. 31

THREE EXHIBITIONS OF DRAWINGS AND PRINTS from the Museum collection selected by three Curatorial Assistants in the Museum's Department of Drawings and Prints. Pop Art Prints, Drawings, and Multiples, directed by Howardena Pindell, is a selection of works by British and American artists demonstrating the wide and diverse range of techniques used to document and convert the familiar and banal into the monumental. Popular Mechanics in Print Making, selected by Donna Stein, comprises works by twenty-five artists which show the wide range of possibilities reproductive techniques have introduced to the traditional processes of print making. Preliminary Drawings is a selection by Joan Rosenbaum of drawings and sketches for traditional paintings and sculptures as well as documents for conceptual projects. Sachs Galleries. 3rd Floor. (opened May 23).

July 31- Oct. 3

ONE-EYED DICKS. A 14-minute continuously projected film comprised of pictures of several bank robberies as they were taken by triggered, automatic cameras. Traditional aesthetic judgments, based upon the idea that a photograph results from a photographer's personal vision, become irrelevant and impossible, as the visual material issues from decisions having nothing to do with art or aesthetics. Directed by Bill Burbank, Curatorial Intern, Department of Photography. Steichen Galleries, 3rd Floor.
PHOTO EYE OF THE 20s. A major exhibition of more than 170 photographic prints surveys a crucial period when the functions of all artistic media were being redefined and artists and critics alike were seeking new directions. Three major developments of the decade are explored: the camera as a precise image-maker, seen in work by such Americans as Paul Strand, Alfred Stieglitz, Edward Weston, and Imogene Cunningham; photography as a plastic medium as practiced by European artists Man Ray and Moholy-Nagy; and the emphasis on social comment as seen in work by Walker Evans and Ralph Steiner. Assembled by Beaumont Newhall, Director, George Eastman House, which is co-sponsoring the exhibition. Photo Eye of the 20s is accompanied by Kino Eye: Films of the 20s, as a program of 43 films selected in cooperation with Willard Van Dyke, Director, Department of Film, from the archives of both institutions. 1st Floor. (opened June 4).

RECENT ACQUISITIONS: PAINTING AND SCULPTURE. Drawing by Matisse, a sculpture by Fausto Melotti, and paintings by Georges Braque, Paul Klee, Oskar Kokoschka, Joan Miró, and Sophie Taeuber-Arp. Selected by William S. Rubin, Chief Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 1st Floor. (opened June 5).

INFORMATION. A report on recent activity of young international artists, selected by Kynaston McShine, Associate Curator, Department of Painting and Sculpture. "The general attitude of the artists in this exhibition," Mr. McShine comments, "is straightforward, friendly, coolly involved and allows experiences which are refreshing. It enables us to participate, quite often as in a game; at other times it seems almost therapeutic, making us question ourselves and our responses to unfamiliar stimuli. The constant demand is a more aware reaction to our natural and artificial environments... These artists are questioning our prejudices, asking us to renounce our inhibitions and if they are reevaluating the nature of art, they are also asking that we reassess what we have always taken for granted as our accepted and cultural conditioned aesthetic response to art. 1st Floor and Garden. (opened July 2).

ARCHIPENKO: THE PARISIAN YEARS, 1908-1921. A survey of Alexander Archipenko's sculpture, reliefs and works on paper done between 1908 and 1921, the years in which he was in Paris and the period when he made his most notable contributions to modern sculpture. Directed by William S. Lieberman, Director, Department of Painting and Sculpture. 1st Floor. (opened July 22)
