FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ZAGREB '72 IN NEW YORK
59 ANIMATED SHORTS FROM INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL
SPECIAL ANIMATED FILMS FOR CHILDREN INCLUDED

Fifty-nine animated short films, shown at the International Festival of Animated Films in Zagreb will be presented at The Museum of Modern Art. The shorts may be seen on Thursday, September 14th, at 2:00 P.M., 5:30 P.M., and 8 o'clock, and Sunday, September 17th, when a special selection for children will be shown at 12:30 P.M. and at 3:00 P.M.

These animated films from all parts of the world were shown in June of this year at The International Festival of Animated Films in Zagreb. Of 150 films shown in Zagreb, 59 films were selected for the Museum program by Adrienne Mancia, Associate Curator of the Department of Film. Mrs. Mancia points out that most film festivals ignore or pay little attention to shorts, and for this reason a festival dedicated solely to the short and animated film has been organized. "The Zagreb Festival not only celebrated the art of film but gave evidence of the continuing vitality and thrust of the animated film - a film art that evolved with the birth of the movies." Few of the films, despite wit, humor, satire, and aesthetic quality, will be shown publicly in America.

The Museum program includes the work of recognized animators in 18 countries, including Russia, West Germany, Poland, Japan, Australia, Rumania, Italy, Great Britain and among others the United States. The artists represented are Zlatko Bourek, Bruno Bozzetto, Jiri Brdecka, Nedliko Dragic, George Dunning, Bob Godfrey, Zlatko Grgic, Ivan Ivanon-Vano, Yoji Kuri, Vatroslav Mimica, Ion Popescu-Gopo, Raoul Servais, and Karel Zeman, and others. The Museum program was conceived with the cooperation of the Zagreb Festival Organizing Committee and its Director Zelmir Matko.
