NO. 107

FOR RELEASE: DECEMBER 20, 1975

GREAT ADDRESSES, a handsome address book, illustrated with photographs of 23 historically important residences designed by famous modern architects, has been published this month by The Junior Council of The Museum of Modern Art. Designed by Ira Howard Levy with the collaboration of Ben Kotyuk, GREAT ADDRESSES is filled with generous pages of fine beige linen-finish paper, lined in such a manner as not to restrict the length of individual entries. Each section is conveniently thumb-indexed.

Included in GREAT ADDRESSES are Charles Eames' house in Santa Monica, Casa Milá in Barcelona by Antoni Gaudí, Philip Johnson's Glass House in New Canaan, Villa Savoye by Le Corbusier, and Falling Water by Frank Lloyd Wright. Marcel Breuer, Walter Gropius, Louis I. Kahn, Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, Gerrit Rietveld, and Moshe Safdie, are among the other renowned architects represented.

Printed in brown and black inks, the book is bound in stain-resistant buckram with heavy brown endpapers; the front cover is stamped in bronze and gold-colored metallic inks. Measuring 6 1/4" by 7 1/2", GREAT ADDRESSES has 256 pages and is packaged in a sturdy carton suitable for mailing. It is available in The Museum of Modern Art Bookstore at 23 West 53 Street for $10, or by mail for $11 (including postage and handling).
