

The Museum of Modern Art

LECTURE AND VIDEOTAPE TO ACCOMPANY FRANK STELLA EXHIBITION

A lecture and videotape are planned in conjunction with the exhibition FRANK STELLA: WORKS FROM 1970 TO 1987, on view at The Museum of Modern Art through January 5, 1988:

LECTURE

Thursday, November 5, 1987, 8:30 p.m.

Stella, Then and Now

Robert Rosenblum

Professor of Art History, New York University

The distinguished art historian and critic Robert Rosenblum will explore Stella's "dual careers" as defined by his 1970 retrospective at the Museum and the current exhibition. Professor Rosenblum is the author of numerous publications, including Cubism and Twentieth-Century Art (1960), Modern Painting and the Northern Romantic Tradition: Friedrich to Rothko (1975), and Frank Stella (1970). In 1981 he received the College Art Association of America's Frank Jewett Mather Award for Art Criticism.

Tickets for the lecture, which will be held in the Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1, are $8 for the public, $7 for Museum members, and $5 for students. Tickets are available at the Museum's information desk or by sending payment with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Department of Education, The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, New York, NY 10019.

VIDEOTAPE

Frank Stella at the Fogg

This twenty-two minute videotape follows Frank Stella as he walks through his 1984 exhibition at Harvard University's Fogg Art Museum. Directed by Caroline Jones and produced by James S. Ackerman, the videotape will be shown in the Museum's Edward John Noble Education Center at times posted.
