MUSEUM OF MODERN ART ANNOUNCES WINNERS IN PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

From the 799 photographs entered in the Image of Freedom Photography Competition held by the Museum of Modern Art from June 20 to August 15, one hundred prints have been selected for which purchase prizes of $25.00 each will be paid. The one hundred prints represent the work of sixty-six amateur and professional photographers in the United States, several of them winning two or three awards. No contestant could win more than five awards. Two of the photographers won four each: Walt Sanders of New York City and Brett Weston of Santa Monica, California. The prize-winning prints will be shown in an exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art from October 29 through January 11.

The judging, which has just been concluded, was anonymous as photographs had to be submitted without identifying mark other than entry number. The jury was composed of:

 Beaumont Newhall, Curator of Photography

and five members of the Committee on Photography:

 Ansel Adams, Vice-Chairman
 James Thrall Soby
 A. Hyatt Mayor
 Nancy Newhall.
