"Two-in-a-Row"

10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Held on two consecutive Saturdays, these workshops offer activities that engage the family in discussions about art. The program offers instruction for two groups of children, ages five to seven and ages eight to ten, with adults.

Admission is $15 per family. Preregistration is required. Enter through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street.

October 14 & 21	Photo Frenzy
November 4 & 11	This, That, and the Other Thing!
December 2 & 9	Don't Be Square! Abstract Art

TOURS FOR TOTS

Saturdays, October 7 & 28, November 18
10:00 - 10:45 a.m.

Gallery activities introduce four-year-olds and their adult companions to painting and sculpture.

Admission is $5 per family. Preregistration is required. Enter through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street.

FAMILY FILMS

Saturdays, October 28, November 4, November 11 & 18
12:00 noon - 1:00 p.m.

An antidote to TV, this program of classic film shorts ranges from live-action films to animation, and from documentary to fantasy. Themes include Animals: Real and Imagined; Boogie Woogie: Rhythm and Movement; Tales of Families and Friends; and Line Dances. Museum staff introduce the films, provide notes, and suggest follow-up activities in the Museum's galleries.

For individual film titles, consult film listings for these dates. Films are shown in the Museum's Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 2. Admission is $5 per family. Tickets may be purchased at the Lobby Information Desk. Enter the Museum at 11 West 53 Street.

Family Programs are made possible by generous grants from Agnes Gund, The Herbert and Kitty Glantz Foundation, The Sheehan Family Foundation, and the J.E. and Z.B. Butler Foundation. Additional funding is provided by the Harriett Ames Charitable Trust, Bloomingdale's, and individual members of the Trustee Committee on Education.
