For Immediate Release
December 1995

THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART CONTINUES ITS FAMILY PROGRAMS Saturdays, January 20, through April 27, 1996 (except April 6)

The Museum of Modern Art begins its winter season of Saturday-morning programs for children, ages four to ten, and their adult friends on January 20, 1996. Continuing through April 27, with the exception of April 6, the programs include Family Gallery Programs, and Tours for Tots, which are offered during the Museum's nonpublic hours, and Family Films. For detailed schedule information call 212\708-9795. The programs are as follows:

FAMILY GALLERY PROGRAMS

Two programs designed for children ages five to ten and their adult friends.

One-at-a-Time

Drop-in, guided walks through the Museum's galleries introduce participants to the diverse world of modern art.

Admission is $5 per family and includes a free return pass. Preregistration is not required. Enter the Museum through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street. Doors open at 9:45 a.m.

"Two-in-a-Row"

Held on two consecutive Saturdays, these workshops offer activities that engage the family in discussions about art. The program offers group instruction for children, ages five to seven and eight to ten, and adults.

Admission is $15 per family. Preregistration is required. Enter through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street.

TOURS FOR TOTS

Gallery activities introduce children age four and their adult companions to painting and sculpture.

Admission is $5 per family. Preregistration is required. Enter through the Edward John Noble Education Center, 18 West 54 Street.

FAMILY FILMS

An antidote for TV blues, this program of classic film shorts ranges from live action to animation and from documentary to fantasy. Museum staff introduce the films, provide notes, and suggest follow-up activities in the Museum's galleries. Films are shown in the Museum's Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 2. Admission is $5 per family. Tickets may be purchased at the Lobby Information Desk. Enter the Museum at 11 West 53 Street.

Family Programs are made possible by generous grants from The Herbert and Kitty Glantz Foundation, The Sheehan Family Foundation, and the J.E. and Z.B. Butler Foundation. Additional funding is provided by the Harriett Ames Charitable Trust, Bloomingdale's, The Contemporary Arts Council of The Museum of Modern Art, and individual members of the Trustee Committee on Education.
