TO Film Editors

Dear Sirs:

You are invited to come or send a representative to a

FILM PREVIEW of

*Fellow Americans, directed by Garson Kanin, with commentary by Lt. James Stewart (OWI)

The Life and Death of U.S.S. Hornet (U.S. Navy)

High Plain, directed by Julien Bryan (CIAA)

in the private projection room of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street

Monday, May 29, at 5 P.M.

The films to be shown in the preview are selections from the Museum's summer program of NEW DOCUMENTARY FILMS which will start Monday, June 5. A printed program will be ready within a few days and will be mailed you.

We hope you will have time to join us for liquid refreshment in the garden after the preview, which will last not more than one hour. Iris Barry, Curator of the Film Library, who arranges the Museum programs, says of Fellow Americans that it is "more than a poetic tribute to the individual American household to which war has brought tragedy: it is one of the simplest and most beautiful of recent documentaries."

Will you please present this letter as a means of quick identification when you arrive as the preview will be held at the time when people are arriving for one of the regular film showings in the auditorium.

Sincerely yours,

Sarah Newmeyer
Publicity Director

*This film will be run last.
