Mr. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Trustee of the Museum of Modern Art, and member of its Executive Committee, will be the guest of honour and speaker at a tea to be given by the Women's City Club, on Monday, December 12, at four o'clock, at the club house, 22 Park Avenue. Mr. Rockefeller as Chairman of the Advisory Committee, was one of the group instrumental in arranging the interesting exhibition of murals by American painters shown last spring at the opening of the Museum's new building. He will talk informally on the work of the Museum as a whole and will describe in connection with the Museum's educational extension work, the four circulating exhibitions which are rendering a unique national service as they travel to every section of the country to be shown in forty cities this year.

Special mention will be made by Mr. Rockefeller of the current exhibit at the Museum which comprises a fairly complete survey of American art with the show of American painting and sculpture produced during the last seventy years and the exhibit of American folk art. The Museum's plans for the future will be outlined by Mr. Rockefeller and some of the proposed new activities discussed.

Mrs. Samuel A. Lewisohn, a Director of the Club and an active member of the Museum's Membership Committee, will preside. The group of hostesses who will assist her in receiving will include three members of the Board of Trustees of the Museum who are also members of the club: Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Mrs. Cornelius J. Sullivan.
Mr. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Trustee of the Museum of Modern Art, and member of its Executive Committee, will be the guest of honour and speaker at a tea to be given by the Women's City Club, on Monday, December 12, at four o'clock, at the club house, 22 Park Avenue. Mr. Rockefeller as Chairman of the Advisory Committee, was one of the group instrumental in arranging the interesting exhibition of murals by American painters shown last spring at the opening of the Museum's new building. He will talk informally on the work of the Museum as a whole and will describe in connection with the Museum's educational extension work, the four circulating exhibitions which are rendering a unique national service as they travel to every section of the country to be shown in forty cities this year.

Special mention will be made by Mr. Rockefeller of the current exhibit at the Museum which comprises a fairly complete survey of American art with the show of American painting and sculpture produced during the last seventy years and the exhibit of American folk art. The Museum's plans for the future will be outlined by Mr. Rockefeller and some of the proposed new activities discussed.

Mrs. Samuel A. Lewisohn, a Director of the Club and an active member of the Museum's Membership Committee, will preside. The group of hostesses who will assist her in receiving will include three members of the Board of Trustees of the Museum who are also members of the club: Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Mrs. Cornelius J. Sullivan.
Mr. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Trustee of the Museum of Modern Art, and member of its Executive Committee, will be the guest of honour and speaker at a tea to be given by the Women's City Club, on Monday, December 12, at four o'clock, at the club house, 22 Park Avenue. Mr. Rockefeller as Chairman of the Advisory Committee, was one of the group instrumental in arranging the interesting exhibition of murals by American painters shown last spring at the opening of the Museum's new building. He will talk informally on the work of the Museum as a whole and will describe in connection with the Museum's educational extension work, the four circulating exhibitions which are rendering a unique national service as they travel to every section of the country to be shown in forty cities this year.

Special mention will be made by Mr. Rockefeller of the current exhibit at the Museum which comprises a fairly complete survey of American art with the show of American painting and sculpture produced during the last seventy years and the exhibit of American folk art. The Museum's plans for the future will be outlined by Mr. Rockefeller and some of the proposed new activities discussed.

Mrs. Samuel A. Lewisohn, a Director of the Club and an active member of the Museum's Membership Committee, will preside. The group of hostesses who will assist her in receiving will include three members of the Board of Trustees of the Museum who are also members of the club: Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Mrs. Cornelius J. Sullivan.
Mr. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Trustee of the Museum of Modern Art, and member of its Executive Committee, will be the guest of honour and speaker at a tea to be given by the Women's City Club, on Monday, December 12, at four o'clock, at the club house, 22 Park Avenue. Mr. Rockefeller as Chairman of the Advisory Committee, was one of the group instrumental in arranging the interesting exhibition of murals by American painters shown last spring at the opening of the Museum's new building. He will talk informally on the work of the Museum as a whole and will describe in connection with the Museum's educational extension work, the four circulating exhibitions which are rendering a unique national service as they travel to every section of the country to be shown in forty cities this year.

Special mention will be made by Mr. Rockefeller of the current exhibit at the Museum which comprises a fairly complete survey of American art with the show of American painting and sculpture produced during the last seventy years and the exhibit of American folk art. The Museum's plans for the future will be outlined by Mr. Rockefeller and some of the proposed new activities discussed.

Mrs. Samuel A. Lewisohn, a Director of the Club and an active member of the Museum's Membership Committee, will preside. The group of hostesses who will assist her in receiving will include three members of the Board of Trustees of the Museum who are also members of the club: Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Mrs. Cornelius J. Sullivan.