

SPECIAL EVENTS Entertaining

The Lobby/The Agnes Gund Garden Lobby

Maximum capacity for dinner: 700
Maximum capacity for a reception: 1000

The spacious lobby is a flexible 12,400-square-foot space stretching between Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Streets. With inviting views of The Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden, it lends itself perfectly to cocktail receptions, seated dinners, and dancing.

The Donald B. and Catherine C. Marron Atrium

Maximum capacity for dinner: 400
Maximum capacity for a reception: 700

Approached from the ground floor via a grand staircase and dramatically situated beneath skylights 110 feet overhead, the Marron Atrium stands at the center of more than 20,000 square feet of gallery space housing contemporary art.

The Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden

Maximum capacity for reception: 1500

Designed by the renowned architect Philip Johnson for the display of outstanding examples of sculpture from the Museum's collection, the magnificent Sculpture Garden also features beautiful landscaping, seasonal plantings, and reflecting pools.

The Edward John Noble Education Center Lobby and The Celeste Bartos Lobby

Maximum capacity for dinner: 80
Maximum capacity for a reception: 250

The Edward John Noble Education Center Lobby and The Celeste Bartos Lobby create an elegant bi-level space for a cocktail reception or dinner. Both lobby areas are adjacent to The Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Sculpture Garden, providing extraordinary views of Manhattan's midtown skyline.

Cafe 2

Maximum capacity for dinner: 150
Maximum capacity for a reception: 200

Conveniently situated on the Museum's 2nd Floor, directly adjacent to special exhibition galleries, Cafe 2 provides an adaptable space for entertaining. Characterized by long sight lines, it is suitable for receptions, dinners, or an intimate performance space.

MOMA

THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART
SPECIAL EVENTS
(212) 708 9680
SpecialEvents@moma.org

Terrace 5

(The Carroll and Milton Petrie Café)
Maximum capacity for dinner: 60
Maximum capacity for a reception: 100

Located immediately outside the Painting and Sculpture Galleries, this café on the fifth floor offers a unique, intimate atmosphere and is perfect for smaller events. In good weather, the balcony offers a spectacular view of the Sculpture Garden.

The Sixth-Floor Gallery Lobby

Maximum capacity for dinner: 70
Maximum capacity for a reception: 250

Located immediately outside of MoMA's Rene d'Harnoncourt Exhibition Galleries, this distinctive platform with skylight above and views of the Artium below, provides convenient access to our featured exhibitions.

MoMA PS1

Maximum capacity for dinner or reception:
Please call 212-708-9680 to discuss your specific needs.

Housed in a hundred-year-old, 125,000-square-foot Romanesque Revival school building in Long Island City, Queens, MoMA PS1 offers a unique venue for the exhibition of contemporary art, as well as a wide variety of spaces for events large and small, alike.

The Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1 and Theater 2

Theater 1 Capacity: 400
Theater 2 Capacity: 200

These state-of-the-art theaters have superb film and video projection capabilities and act as an ideal venue for feature film premiers and screenings, meetings, lectures and performances.

The Celeste Bartos Theater and The Time Warner Screening Room

The Celeste Bartos Theater Capacity: 125
The Time Warner Screening Room Capacity: 50

In addition to The Roy and Niuta Titus Theaters 1 and 2 in the main Museum building, we offer two smaller theaters in The Lewis B. and Dorothy Cullman Education and Research Building, with the same first-rate film and video projection capabilities—ideal for smaller meetings or business presentations.

MoMA

THE MUSEUM OF
MODERN ART
SPECIAL EVENTS
(212) 708 9680
SpecialEvents@moma.org